What people are saying...

“The BarlowGirl girls are both mature and spunky, quick witted and calm. I was impressed how well they handled themselves on and off the air during my morning show and was BLOWN AWAY by how well they sounded performing acoustically live. With their musically and lyrically relevant message these girls will continue to have a positive impact on young people for years to come.” Greg Saunders of WQFL/ Rockford, IL

“Being a new artist in any genre is tough enough. Being a fresh pop rock band made up of all girls can raise another set of obstacles, especially in Christian music. But the ladies of BarlowGirl are not afraid of those hurdles and have their feet firmly planted on solid ground. They are ready for whatever the industry throws at them.” Radio & Records
