COME UNDONE

lyrics

EVERYTHING, David Leonard / Toby Friesen / David Barnes

Sitting alone my mind tends to wander
To the things I think will satisfy me
And every time I think I get somewhere
I seem to end back at the start
And I'm stuck 'till I find the one who wants my heart.

Will someone say that

Chorus

I will give you everything you need in time
I will love you more you see
Right now

Is it even true that there's good somewhere inside of me
If I try my best it's still not enough
But trying only ever goes so far
And in the end I feel the same
And the good I want only ends in shame

Will someone say that

Chorus

All I want is your love
That you've given up for me
And now I have found all I need

Chorus

GIVE ME AMAZING GRACE, David Leonard / Jason Ingram

I don't wanna be stuck in this misery
I've tried my best to make it on my own
But I'm in way too deep so deep that I can't sleep
As I wait for the sun to break the dawn

And I've given up on myself
Given in to someone else

Chorus

So wash away the madness
'Cause You don't care what's happened
You don't even think about the things that I've done wrong
So give me a new start
Create in me a new heart
Pull me in to Your sweet embrace
Give me amazing grace

Now I wanna sing and tell about the mystery
Of how someone can love a wretch like me
You can make a blind man see and You can change their destiny
Of everyone that comes to You and believes

You've gotta give up on ourselves
And give in to someone else

Chorus

You've gotta give up on ourselves
And give in to someone else

Chorus

COME UNDONE, David Leonard / Doug McKelvey

There are ways I've fallen
There are times I've been so weak
There are moments when I hear redemption calling
But I'm too far down to speak

Chorus
Come sweet fire of mercy
Cover up my skin
Warm me like the sun
Won't you let me in
To come, come undone

There are scars that I've been hiding
There are ghosts that I do not claim
There are closets I do not care to open
They open all the same

Chorus

JAMIE'S SONG, David Leonard / Craig Wilson

Jamie was walking on the border state line
She was dreaming 'bout a city
She was dreaming about a better life

Jamie was walking as the sun fell to the ground
The bright lights were calling the city was yelling
It's time to find her way

Chorus
Even the pouring rain won't keep her away, keep her away
Even the pouring rain won't keep her away
Even the pouring rain won't keep her away
Keep her away

Jamie's been hiding, hiding from her fears inside
This old world's controlling the feelings that she's holding
It's time to find her way

Chorus

ONE MORE DAY, David Leonard / Rob Hawkins / Jason Ingram

Fallen like the sun
Given way to the darkness of the night
When hope is all but gone
Let me remind you my friend to hold on

All of us the same
Everyone carries the ache of the world
This is not where it ends
I will remind you my friend to hold on

Chorus
It's gonna be one more day
The clouds will roll away
It's gonna be one more day
We will all be okay
It's gonna be one more day
We'll see our Savior's face so
Hold on, hold on

Life can be so unkind
I've given up asking why
You can't escape the way
The world cracks and breaks
But hold on

Chorus

One more day

SEND HER AN ANGEL, David Leonard / Ryan Hawk / Steve Hindalong

Send her an angel to guard her fragile heart
To dry those tears that fall in the dark
Send her an angel to hold her through the night
To bring her love and show her light

It's a crazy world she's livin' in tonight
Show her grace, tender mercy, hold her tight

Chorus

I know the shadows will fade when the night drifts away
It's, okay, it's okay, it's okay
And the dark will give way to a brand new day
It's okay, it's okay, it's okay

Send her an angel to kiss her hollow eyes
To tell her she's Your beautiful child
Send her an angel to whisper to her soul
She's not an orphan, please let her know

It's a crazy world she's livin' in tonight
Show her grace, tender mercy, hold her tight

Chorus

CENTER OF ATTENTION, David Leonard / Ryan Hawk / Rob Hawkins

You want your independence
But you won't let me let you go
You want to test the waters
And leave it on the empty shore

Chorus

I'll take my time if you want to
I'll give you whatever you need
I'll wait a lifetime to give in to you

You think that you're the sun
The whole world revolves around you
The center of attention
And everything is drawn to you

Chorus

I would wait a lifetime and I would wait for you
I would wait a lifetime and I would wait for you
I would wait a lifetime for you

READY TO FIND LOVE, David Leonard / Ryan Hawk / Rob Hawkins

Staring at an empty cup waiting to fill it up
Just as I see her walk by
I come inside here everyday
My jaded heart won't let me stay
It's time to tell her everything
So breath
Just breath

Chorus

Ready to find love
Ready to feel love
I'm ready to see for the very first time
I'm ready to know one
Ready to love one
Ready to give you everything

Oh I need to know if this is all your love
'Cause I want to give you all I have
'Cause all I feel inside has got to come out sometime
It might as well be now

So breathe, just breathe

Chorus

'Cause I've been searching for awhile
For someone to show me
And I've been waiting my whole life
For someone to show me
How I can find love
Feel love and see for the very first time

DIFFERENT, David Leonard / Sam Mizell

Blue meets grey
Sun meets the starry night
Water meets the sand
I heard Your voice
I breathe your breath of life
For the first time I opened up my eyes

Chorus

I see everything in a brand new light
Like a new born child with a brand new life
I know my heart is alive inside
'Cause I feel it, I feel It
I don't know where my sorrow went
I don't care what you've done with it
'Cause you gave me grace 'till my heart's content
And I'm different
I'm different

Who I am, who I used to be
Are more than worlds apart
Lord Your love and what You've done for me
They've taken me this far

Chorus

GIVE IT ALL AWAY, David Leonard / Ryan Hawk / Craig Wilson

You put on your smile
It may last awhile
So much to do you're breaking
So much of you is fading away

In this crowded room
There are more like you
All of the time spent faking
Watching our selves slowly drift away

But will we give it all away

Chorus

Run from the past that holds you
The nights that won't see you through
The shame in the mask you're holding
Will you give it all, give it all away

I've been in your shoes
There's nothing left to lose
Why are you still waiting
Don't let the truth slowly slip away

So will you give yourself away

Chorus

LET IT FLY, David Leonard / Clint Lagerberg

There's a world awaiting you
And it's yours for the taking
But everything you hold on to
Is standing in your way
The dark will disappear
If you give it away

Chorus

Let it fly
Let it fly
To the only One that can hold it
'Cause you know you don't have to hold it
Let it fly
Let it fly
To the only One that can hold it
'Cause you know you don't have to hold it
So let it fly

You have the Son inside of you
Burning away your darkest hours
Where everything's as good as new
With the dawn of a brand new day
The dark will disappear
If you give it away

Chorus

I see the sunrise
Don't let it pass you by...
