BarlowGirl Completes Recording Third Studio Album For Summer Release

“Group of the Year” Dove nominee named National Day of Prayer – 2007 Youth Ambassador; Collaborates with industry standouts to record new song supporting May 3 event

(Nashville, TN) March 14, 2007 — Fervent Records’ sister rock trio and 2007 GMA “Group of the Year” nominee, BarlowGirl, recently completed recording their highly anticipated studio album in Nashville.

Producing the group’s third album, currently untitled, is Dove-nominated producer Otto Price, who has overseen BarlowGirl’s previous albums.

“This project is very exciting because we’re using different approaches and different sounds,” says Otto Price, Word Label Group Vice President of A&R. “Lyrically, it contains much more maturity, intensity and depth, and musically, it’s very progressive.”

Recorded at the prestigious Paragon Studios in Franklin, TN, the album is due out in stores July 24.

In addition to preparing for this summer’s album launch, BarlowGirl was selected as the National Day of Prayer – 2007 Youth Ambassador. The girls further joined other renown artists Lisa Kimmey (Out of Eden), Leigh Cappillino (Point of Grace) and David Leonard (Jackson Waters), for the recording of the new song, “We Pray,” specifically written and recorded for National Day of Prayer, which is set to take place May 3. “We Pray” will further impact radio March 30.
